Jammin' Trivia has been a pleasure to work with. Our bar does not have the easiest layout, and Trevor has adjusted quite a few times to make us happy. The questions on our trivia nights are tough, but not too tough that people hate it. They push our trivia nights on all social media and website, which helps a lot when you are just starting out. We look forward to working with Trevor and Jammin' Trivia for a long time to come.

Sincerely,
